

Review procedure

1. The article should be reviewed by a minimum of two independent reviewers.
2. The reviewers should fill in the review form on the journal's website.
3. As part of the review, the article should be evaluated according to 6 criteria, give a general and detailed commentary and qualify the article for publication with a clear conclusion on the release for publication.
4. Eligibility criteria:
 - Does the title of the article correspond to its content ?
 - Is the content of the article consistent with the topic of the journal ?
 - Are the issues presented in the right of the substantive content ?
 - Can the issues presented in the article be considered as original ?
 - Is the literature properly selected and quoted ?
 - Is the article properly prepared in terms of language ?
5. Reviews should be prepared in the written form.
6. The reviewers should fill in the statement about the absence of a conflict of interest.
7. The names of the reviewers of the magazine's issues will not be disclosed.
8. A list of reviewers of articles published in a given year is posted on the journal's website..